

Graduate School of Asia-Pacific Studies (GSAPS)

WASEDA UNIVERSITY

01

With top-tier education in both Japanese and English, you'll discover the joy and depth of research firsthand.

02

We support your international pursuits with abundant exchange programs and grants for overseas fieldwork.

03

You will work closely with professors with advanced research skills and diverse professional backgrounds.

04

By learning across different fields, you can acquire the knowledge and skills sought after by international organizations.

05

Thousands of our alumni are active in various countries and diverse fields.

06

Surrounded by classmates from all over the world, you can study in a global environment.

Faculty Spotlights

Learn about the benefits of a GSAPS education from faculty in their own words!

Click here ▶

GSAPS Excellence Awards

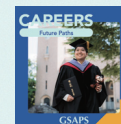

Special scholarships (total amount : 1.4 million yen) for Japanese nationals who study in MA program.

Click here ▶

GSAPS Official Instagram

Please check in for the latest news and student posts from GSAPS.

Click here ▶

Different Entrance Opportunities

- Applications available for entrance in both April and September
- Applicants welcomed from a wide variety of backgrounds
- Applications evaluated holistically, with attention to the many factors that can shape a student's promise

Program	Category	Overview
MA & Ph.D.	General Admissions	We aim to attract the best candidates from around the world, with no restrictions on nationalities.
MA	Special Admissions for International Development	This scheme focuses on Japanese nationals or special permanent residents who have overseas experiences (NGO, JOCV, etc.) of more than one year in the field of international development.
	Special Admissions for Graduating Waseda University Students	Currently-enrolled undergraduates at Waseda University can apply.

Details of Admissions

Check here for details of admissions!

Click here ▶

Contact

✉ gsaps-admission@list.waseda.jp