

Sub-Program	Administrative Capacity Development
Component	1. Enhancement of Capacity for Public Administrative Government
Objective	Establishing a system for the central and local government and building capacity of administrative officials involved in the operation of the system.
Possible Fields of Study	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Governance/Administration - Local Governance / Local Autonomous - International Relations - Kaizen - Information Security - ICT
Accepting University (Number of Scholars)	Meiji University (5) Graduate School of Governance Studies Major in Governance Studies (1) Public Policy Program (2) International Development Policy Program (3) Community Planning and Management Program - Master of Public Policy Yamaguchi University (5) Graduate School of Economics Public Administration Course - Master of Economics (with certificate of completion of Public Administration Course) Kobe University (2) Graduate School of International Cooperation Studies Special Course for Development Policy - Master of Political Science - Master of International Studies
Target Organizations	BCS Cadre Officials (All Ministries)
Background:
The Bangladesh Government, in the “Vision 2021” which is the middle long development plan for becoming middle-income country and the “7th Five-Year Plan” (2016-2020), states that enhancing “Good Governance” is a dispensable to the continuous and sound development in Bangladesh. Especially, it is essential to improve further improve efficiency of bureaucracy and to enhance their capacity building of central and local civil servants who support to it in order to formulate, implement and monitor policies and strategies in each field and to provide higher quality public services to the every citizen. Therefore, it is emphasized to need for further promotion of decentralization and strengthening administrative capacity for local governments. In regard of capacity building of civil servants, the Ministry of Public Administration and other organizations are creating the Civil Service Law, establishing a comprehensive management system for civil servants, developing the capability of training organizations, and enhancing the capacity of both executive and front-line civil servants. In addition, in regard of devolution to local governments, Local Governance Division under Ministry of Local Government, Rural Development and Cooperatives and other parties are trying to strengthen the capability of local governments of both rural and urban areas, and attempting fiscal transfers. In order to establish and systematize these efforts, policy-level discussion is important. Furthermore, developing human resource at executive/policy-making level in this component through JDS Project is critical for Japan to carry out assistance to Bangladesh.	