I. Application Guidelines

1. About JDS Scholarship

The Project for Human Resource Development Scholarship (JDS) was launched by the Government of Bangladesh with the assistance of the Government of Japan in 2001.

JDS

Is funded by the Government of Japan through its ODA (Official Development Assistance) budget.

JDS

Targets young government officials and others who are expected to play a leadership role in the development of their countries.

JDS

Provides scholarships to Bangladesh government officers to study at two-year Master's degree courses (instructed in English) of Japanese universities.

Objectives of JDS

■ To support for Human Resource Development

JDS's objective is to strengthen the government's administrative capacities in Bangladesh by providing the opportunity to obtain the Master's degree for young capable government administrators. These individuals are expected to engage in formulating and implementing social and economic development plans and to play a leadership role in the development of the country.

■ To Enhance Bilateral Relationships

JDS fellows are expected to solidify foundations to further bilateral relations with Japan by utilizing their human network developed through academic and social activities while in Japan.

Beneficiaries of JDS

■ For the participants (JDS Fellows)

JDS Fellows are going to study at the highest-level research institutions in Japan. Fellows will conduct research with world top level researchers and acquire expertise to use for policy making and institutional building for the development of their country. Fellows will also have opportunities to build human network in and out of Japan through the two-year study in Japan. After the program, fellows can contribute to the development and prosperity of Bangladesh with those expertise and human network they built in Japan.

■ For the organizations (The Fellows' workplace)

The Fellows' workplace will gain highly-capable and motivated returnees (JDS Fellows) who can effectively contribute to the organizational missions

■ For the Country (The Fellows' country)

The Fellows' country will improve institutional capability of the target organizations which leads to foster country's development

2. System of JDS Bangladesh

The framework of the JDS Project under the "New System" was made applicable to Bangladesh in 2009 and was revised in 2013, 2017, 2021 and 2025. The new approach gives its importance on "selection and concentration" on the target priority issues to enhance effectiveness and efficiency of the program. A single program (One phase) is designed to accept four batches of Fellows (Fellows in each fiscal year constitute one batch). This year's application is for the 1st batch in phase 5.

The new JDS Project consists of the sectors called "Sub-Program" and "Component", which correspond to and deal with the selected target priority areas and the relevant development issues, which were confirmed as indispensable to the economic and social development of the country.

The Fellows of the JDS Project are selected from the "Target Organizations" whose mission is closely related to the target priority areas (Sub-Program) and the relevant development issues (Component).

Accepting universities are also determined under each Component, which offers educational programs relevant to the needs of Bangladesh. The degree to be pursued is master's degree (2 years course), and the medium of instruction is English.

3. Tips on Application and Selection (Reference)

The better you prepare for the Application Documents, the more chances to pass the selection you have. Please spend more than 1 week to prepare the Application Documents, especially short essay and Research Plan. Here are some tips on the preparation of Application Form (AF) and Research Plan (RP).

About the selection and criteria

As shown in the chart above, you are advised to collect detailed information about JDS, Japan and the universities through literature survey and so on before applying to JDS. Also, it is important to know in advance about its selection and evaluation criteria (P5), and prepare your AF and, RP with a view to winning the selection.

(1) Understanding JDS

Objectives and framework

The objectives of JDS are written in P2. “Sub-Program and Component (SP/CP)” and “Targeted Organizations (TO)” are shown in P14. But, here, most importantly, you have to note the reasons why JDS is provided to the government sector, why SP/CP and TO are set in the JDS framework. The answers to those questions will be an important basis in making preparation for AF and RP.

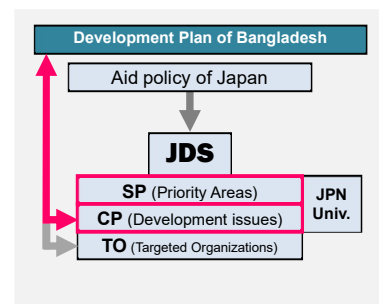

- JDS is designed to support the human resource development of Bangladesh
- Government sector can directly and widely contribute to the development
- SP/CP are set based on the development plan of Government of Bangladesh and Japan aid policy,
- TO (You and your workplace) are considered to be closely involved in the development.

(2) Country analysis

As mentioned in “(1) Understanding JDS” above, “SP/CP” is set based on the development plan of the Government of Bangladesh (Rectangular strategy, NSDP, etc.). First, read and understand a background of the SP/CP you wish to apply for (P14) to know what kind of development issues are assumed and what kind of research are expected under JDS. Then, obtain information on development issues of Bangladesh (New System 5th 4-year Plan 2026 - 2029) to deepen your understanding on the status of the development. This analysis of present development status will be important not only for making a RP but also for later selection steps (interviews).

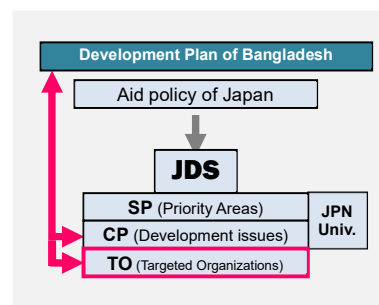

- Read and understand a background of the SP/CP you apply for (P15~)
- Check such materials as NSDP, issues of your organization, etc.

(3) Organization task analysis

As shown in “JDS framework (P14)”, TO is set under the each CP and considered to be closely related with the development issues (CP). Therefore, it is essential for you to know what kind of mission your organization has in the context of the development of Bangladesh. Also it is important to observe what kind of issues your organization is tackling with and what are lacking to solve the issues. Those observations will help you conduct further analysis.

- Check missions and roles of your organization in the context of the development of your country.
- Also observe what is necessary in your organization to solve the development issues of your workplace. Those observations will help you find reasons to study in Japan.

(4) University research

As shown in “JDS framework (P14)”, the relevant Japanese universities (courses) are designated under the each CP. Those universities are selected to offer you with sufficient knowledge in order to tackle development issues of your concern. As the universities wish to recruit students with necessary academic level and high motivation to learn, you need to demonstrate those points in the following way.

- One of the ways to show self-motivation is to demonstrate how much you know about the university you are applying for.
- Go to the university website to know their location, history, provided courses, the faculty members, etc.
- Find interesting professors, and check their research areas, current activities, their published academic papers, etc.

(5) Career plan

As you can see it in Application Form (AF), you will be required to fill in your work experience, Research plan, Reason why you have chosen to apply to the Graduate School/Course/Program you selected, and future contribution. Those questions are very coherent in the sense that each question asks [who you are / what you are doing now], [what you want to do in Japan] and [what you can / want to do after your study]. So, those questions ask how you relate your career and the study in the context of the development of Bangladesh. This is a clear tip to answer to those questions in AF.

Questions you answer on AF are NOT separate questions. They are very coherent.

About “Responsibilities of Your Work” in AF

Due to lack of understanding of the connections among questions on AF, some people do nothing but list up their daily work on “Responsibilities of Your Work” part in AF without being aware of those connections. As mentioned above, it is important to show your current (or previous) work in the context of the development issues in order to bridge your answers to the next questions (Research Plan and career plan after study).

“Responsibilities of Your Work” part is asking your current and previous works. But, based on your answers in this question, the interviewers (the university and OC) try to guess if you can use acquired knowledge in your work after you return from Japan.

About “Research Plan” in AF

The details about how to write Research Plan (RP) is explained in (P10). On the basis of the explanation above, keep in mind that the RP is considered as an extension of your work, which will lead to your career plan after you study in Japan.

About “Future Plan after study in Japan” in AF

You may have a problem in answering to this question about how you will contribute to the development after your study in Japan. Considering the objectives of JDS, this is a very important factor through the selection process. Every year, some applicants provide answers such as “I will share my knowledge”, “I will teach at educational institutions” and so on. Those are, of course, important. But, if you are a JDS interviewer, would you be attracted by such answers?

- If you have finished the analysis in (2) ~ (4) above, you should be able to identify the needs of Bangladesh and your organization as well as your tasks to fulfill such needs.
- It is important to layout your future career plan (after your study in Japan) in relation to the needs of Bangladesh and your organization, which also will be a solid and good reasoning to study in Japan!

(6) Research on relevant issues in Japan

The JDS Fellows are to conduct a research on development issues of their home countries. And also, taking into account that they study in Japan, you are also recommended to know in advance, at least, about historical and empirical cases of Japan in your research field.

(7) Test preparation

As shown in “Selection Process (P4)”, the results of English and Math tests will be reviewed by the universities in the 1st selection (AF and RP screening by the universities in Japan) and afterwards.

- It is strongly recommended to prepare for those tests, improving your ability by self-study. You can prepare both tests in advance!
- About IELTS test, get used to the test format using sample test and textbooks.
- About Math test, question and solution of the past years’ test are available at JDS Website. Using the past test, check rules and formulas in school textbooks!

4. Guidelines for Writing a Research Plan

(1) Guideline for writing a research plan

In the application for JDS, the research plan for your Master's thesis should ;

- Address the current issues/problems of the socioeconomic development of Bangladesh and how to remedy these issues/problems.
- Present a detailed work plan on how and what you will do to achieve for the goal of your study.

The research plan, which is submitted for the application is not deemed to be final. It will be revised during the course work in the line with the Component. The purpose of the research plan is to help its readers (faculty members of graduate schools) evaluate the significance and potentiality of your research from the following aspects:

- 1) Does the research plan address the important policy questions of Bangladesh?
- 2) Does the research plan show that the applicant is strongly motivated and adequately prepared to implement the research successfully?
- 3) Who will benefit from the result of the research? Will the result of the research contribute to solving or clarifying policy questions which are important for Bangladesh?

- 4) Does the research help the applicant to more effectively participate in the development process of Bangladesh after the completion of the course?
- 5) Is the applicant's academic background strong enough to implement the research plan?
- 6) Is the applicant's work experience sufficient to pursue the research? (Not necessary if other application material is good enough to show that the answers are positive.)
- 7) Does the research plan fit well with the program of the graduate school?
- 8) Are the applicant's research questions academically significant?

The importance of each point above, however, depends on the field of study and the graduate program you are applying for. Some graduate programs may require more specific information about the data and method of analysis. Therefore, it is essential to go through the "University Information" as well as the website of the university carefully before writing your research plan. Writing a research plan is the beginning of your research. It is highly recommended that you keep improving your research plan before departure to Japan after being selected as a JDS Fellow.

(2) Outline of the research plan (Example)

Title		Describe the nature of your proposed research clearly. Avoid making it too short or redundant.
Introduction	Background	Position your research theme here to state a significance of your research in the research areas . The literature review is not a part to merely describe preceding studies but to sort out what researches have done, what have been found and what are unknown in your research field . Also consider relevance with development issues and your organization. List the preceding studies in a reference section at the end of your research plan.
	Literature Review
	Purpose and Questions	Shape and clarify what you want to achieve by your research. It is recommended to think about research purposes at a higher level not in your daily duties. The research itself is not a purpose. Your research is supposed to contribute to the development of Bangladesh and institutional development of your organization. As for the research questions, set your questions in relation with to the preceding studies above, development issues of Bangladesh and your organization, also taking into consideration your research methodologies. With solid research questions, the research methodologies will be clarified accordingly.
Main Body	Methodology	This is the main part of your research plan. Develop your opinion and give more information. Explain what and how to study. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>▪ Detail your research procedure within the given timeframe.</li> <li>▪ List sources and quality of evidence you will consult with and the analytical technique you will employ, and the timetable you will follow.</li> <li>▪ Describe the intended methods of data gathering, the controls you will introduce, the statistical methods to be used, the type of literature or documentary analysis to be followed, etc.</li> </ul>
Conclusion	Expected Results Significance	Tell the reader the important points to stress and address your future plan. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Expected learning/findings from your research</li> <li>• Describe your future plan on how to utilize your research outcome to solve the issues mentioned in the first part after returning Bangladesh.</li> <li>• Describe how your research outcome will contribute to Bangladesh and the institutional development of your organization.</li> </ul>
	Bibliography	Include all the resources which are used in the writing of the research plan.

The staff nurses, in contrast, are assigned to patients and provide all their nursing care.~~

Background:
The government of Bangladesh set forth Perspective Vision 2041, a mid- to long-term plan aiming to join the ranks of developed countries by 2041, and the Eighth Five-Year Plan (2020-2025) under the previous administration. Although these development plans were halted following the establishment of the interim government in 2024, improving good governance has been essential to the sound and continuous progress of the nation. In particular, it has been necessary to advance reforms to the civil service system and further improve the efficiency of the bureaucracy, as well as enhancing the abilities of central and local civil servants to support such initiatives, in order to formulate, implement, and monitor policy and strategy in each field and provide higher-quality public services. There has also been the necessity of further promotion of decentralization and enhancement of the administrative capabilities of local governments. Under these circumstances, the Bangladesh government, led by Ministry of Public Administration, has been working to improve the capacity of civil servants by enacting the Civil Service Act, establishing a comprehensive civil service management system, improving the capacity of training institutions, and strengthening the capacity of central and local civil servants. In addition, to promote decentralization, the Directorate General of Local Government has been working to strengthen the capacity of rural and urban local governments and transfer finances.

Background:

Background:
While Bangladesh's economic growth over the past decade and longer has been accompanied by rapid urbanization, the urban environment in the nation has worsened steadily due to the unplanned development and inadequate infrastructure in the core cities caused by lack of master plans and related laws and regulations. In addition, there is a tendency apparent for resources to be concentrated in urban areas, whereas poverty rates are relatively higher in rural areas. Therefore, there is a pressing need for measures to encourage development with harmony between urban and rural areas, such as integrated regional development plans. It is urgent to train executive civil servants with perspectives, abilities, skills, and theoretical grounding to formulate integrated regional plans and policies; thus, it is highly meaningful to include this field in the scope of the JDS Project.

Background:

(a) Economics Planning and Policy

In the 8th Five Year Plan which had been set forth under the previous administration, the government of Bangladesh has stipulated sustainable management of public finance and appropriate monetary policies as important reforms for attracting private investment although the development plan above was halted following the establishment of the interim government in 2024. In order for Bangladesh to become a middle-income country by 2026 and ensure effective and efficient implementation of individual aid programs by Japan and environment for attracting investment from Japanese private-sector businesses, a sound macroeconomic structure has been indispensable. It is highly meaningful for administrators, including the officials of the Ministry of Finance and the Bangladesh Bank, to acquire knowledge in each field through the JDS Project.

(b) Public Finance Administration/Public Investment Management

The development plan above has also identified public investment management as pivotal development challenge. JICA has been supporting the area of Strengthening Public Investment Management for more than 10 years. JICA is currently implementing Strengthening Public Investment Management System Project aimed at improving efficiency of formulation/review/approval process of Annual Development Programme (ADP) and enhancing coordination with the top plan of ADP for the Planning Division in the Ministry of Planning which manages whole development projects in the public investment management.

In order for the smooth implementation of initiatives mentioned above, it is important to develop human resources who possess the capability to design mid- and long-term policies and national plans; and skills to set up a system to realize these plans.

IV. Special Trainings and Events

JDS Program provides the following opportunities for JDS Fellows only in addition to research at university.

Government Leaders Networking Event

This special event aims to establish long-term cooperative relationships between JDS Fellows and Japanese government officials by providing opportunities of interaction and mutual learning. JDS Fellows participate in the event and expand their personal networks with Japanese government officials, who would become their counterparts in the future.

Japanese Language Training

All JDS Fellows participate in Japanese language training after their arrival in Japan. This training provides Fellows with the lessons on Japanese characters (hiragana, katakana, and kanji), greetings, and how to introduce themselves. In addition, they deepen their understandings of Japanese culture, lifestyle and manners, and learn the procedures necessary for staying in Japan such as government office, post office, and bank.

JDS Pre-return Program

JDS Pre-return Program is held half a year before returning home, inviting all JDS fellows from each university.

During this program, the Fellows have opportunities to attend a series of programs, including leadership program and a special lecture given by a prominent scholar. It also helps them build a network with JDS fellows from various countries.

V. Voice of JDS Graduates

Dear JDS interested folks, you will find that- Japan has good people, comparably comfortable weather (not so hot like ours nor so cold like temperate countries) and beautiful nature. Sometimes we set off to lab after 2/3 a.m. and it's quite safe to go home by bicycle alone. To pursue a Masters here, please be careful about choosing University/ professor since this is very important. If you could learn some Japanese, that will be great to lead everyday life here. All the best to newcomers.

Mr. Rasel Sheikh Golam

20th Batch, Meiji University,
Ministry of Education

I decided to join the JDS program due to its world-class education, wide-ranging support, safest living environment, and fair selection process. The scholarship provides access to prestigious Japanese universities such as Meiji University, Yokohama National University, and Hiroshima University etc. The JDS also offers attractive financial support, allowing me to focus on my studies.

During my time in Japan, I gained invaluable insights into public policy formulation, research, TQM, Japan's successful development strategies and comparative education, and many more. The rigorous academic curriculum at Meiji University equipped me with advanced analytical and research skills. Beyond academics, living in Japan taught me the importance of discipline, politeness, efficiency, and resilience.

I plan to implement my research findings by preparing government college teachers for active learning through extensive training programs. I aim to drive meaningful changes in higher secondary education sector of Bangladesh. I recommend the Ministry of Education equip each college with dedicated classrooms for active learning and regularly monitor and supervise classroom activities.

I have decided to pursue an MA in Economics through the JDS program in Japan because of its extensive offerings across a wide range of subject areas, adequate financial support, and excellent networking opportunities. These factors together create an ideal environment for advancing my knowledge and career prospects in economics, leveraging Japan's academic excellence and cultural richness to enhance my educational journey. While studying economics in Japan, I have deepened my understanding of advanced economic theories, econometrics, and empirical research methods. The program has enhanced my networking skills and enriched my appreciation of Japanese culture and the history of Japan's economic development, contributing to both my academic and personal growth. The knowledge acquired from Japan is proving extremely beneficial in formulating policies, especially in the fields of economics, banking and sustainable finance at my current workplace. Formulating research based financing and economic policy, overseeing their implementation and impact analyses are crucial aspects of my current job which I acquired through my educational experience in Japan.

Mr. Hasan Muhammad Munirul
18th batch, Keio University,
Ministry of Information

JDS Scholarship is a big twist of my academic, career and personal life. I studied LLM in Global Legal Practice at the Keio University, Tokyo, Japan. From the reception ceremony of my accepting University, I have experienced many things, very new and interesting, such as: the courtesy, generosity and politeness during the communication with people, when we met with. Japanese life standard is different from other countries. Basically Japanese people are very helpful and honest to the people. Japanese culture and people's characteristics are incredibly rich and best, than that of other countries. Every Japanese is sincere to their task and responsibilities. I have learnt and adopted these things practically from the Japanese lifestyle. Japan will definitely give you feeling, through which you could develop your country.

JDS Scholarship changes my attitude towards life. Definitely, it is a great opportunity to be a research fellow under this scholarship. I have chosen Yamaguchi University which is the third oldest national university in Japan, tracing its roots back to Yamaguchi Kodo, a private school established in 1815. It celebrated its 200th anniversary in 2015. The local area still holds the spirit of the Meiji Restoration, and the university challenges itself to stand up in the world. These values are reflected in the university motto: "Discover it. Nourish it. Realize it. A Place of Wisdom." The university administration works to adapt to the requirements of the times, constantly pursuing innovation as it works to develop human resources and provide education and research that will contribute to the local community as well as international society. The Professors are very helpful and knowledgeable. Life in Yamaguchi city is full of peace and tranquility which emphasizes all the wonderful gifts of God's creation and invites me to contemplation, introspection, and reverie. Here Nature speaks its own language. Natural sights, vast landscapes, distant horizons and sounds of nature trigger in me a feeling of joy and exhilaration that restores my soul to the peace of childhood. The Japanese people are really good in attitude and nature. They will try to help one at any cost. In every place, there is a good system. So, I found no time to be worried. I think it will be a good opportunity to know a country like Japan through study and Cultural integration. Ganbatte ne!

I favored JDS due to its transparent selection process. Universities are renowned for their curriculum and esteemed faculty members. Moreover, this scholarship not only offers financial assistance but also provides comprehensive support for various aspects of life abroad such as finding housing, opening a bank account, and city office registration. My knowledge has experienced a positive transformation. I've acquired valuable skills for conducting research, and the execution of research work has been exceptional. Additionally, I've gained insights from esteemed professors in various areas, including economics and statistics. I have been inspired by the behavior and attitudes of Japanese people towards pets and their disciplined way of life. I must also praise the country's efficient systems for garbage management, public bus service, railway service, and convenient shops. My research findings suggest that by enhancing government effectiveness, regulatory quality, and the rule of law, developing countries like Bangladesh can experience a positive impact on economic growth through increased Foreign Direct Investment (FDI) inflows. Implementing these findings could contribute to achieving the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) and realizing Vision 2041, leading to a SMART Bangladesh.
