We are located in Kyoto!

Kyoto, the capital of Japan from 794 to 1868, is well known throughout the world as a repository of Japanese art and cultural tradition.

Kyoto is home to some of Japan's most important UNESCO World Heritage Sites, some of which are located just a short distance from Ritsumeikan University.

Traditional Japanese festivals including the Gion Matsuri -one of Japan's largest and most famous- are held in Kyoto every year.
